

The Present Tense

Pg. 28

1. The Present Tense tells us ~~where~~ that an action is happening in The present (as in right now/at this very moment)
 Ex. portat → "he carries" ; teneo → "I hold" ; audis → "you hear"
2. There are three ways to translate a Latin verb of The present tense:
 - i. I + verb → amo = I love
 - ii. I + am + verbing → amo = I am loving
 - iii. I + do + verbing → amo = I do love
3. Each conjugation has particular endings in The present tense:

1st Conjugation: amo, amare - to love

Person	Singular	Plural
1st	amo - I love	amamus - we love
2nd	amas - you love	amatis - y'all love
3rd	amat - he/she/it loves	amant - they love

2nd Conjugation: teneo, tenere - to hold

Person	Singular	Plural
1st	teneo - I hold	tenemus - we hold
2nd	tenes - you hold	tenetis - y'all hold
3rd	tenet - he/she/it holds	tenent - they hold

35. pg
32.00

The Present Tense

Pg. 29
(pg. 29)

3rd Conjugation - rego, regere - to rule

Person

Singular

Plural

1st

rego - I ruleregimus - we rule

2nd

regis - you ruleregitis - y'all rule

3rd

regit - he/she/it rulesregunt - they rule

4th Conjugation - audio, audire - to hear

Person

Singular

Plural

1st

audio - I hearaudimus - we hear

2nd

audis - you hearauditis - y'all hear

3rd

audit - he/she/it hearsaudiunt - They hear